

Frequently Asked Questions - Urban Farming

What does the workshop include?

This workshop includes learning all the practical tips as well as hands-on experience to start growing healthy organic vegetables such as Chinese Cabbage, Lady's Fingers, Kang Kong & Spinach, etc. You will bring back some young veggies to continue your urban farming journey at home.

Please note that the workshop will be conducted indoors.

Who will be conducting the workshop?

Trainers from Garden with Purpose who have extensive knowledge in urban farming.

Do I need to have prior knowledge in order to participate?

No prior knowledge is required. Through our workshop, you will be guided on how to be Urban Farmers in your home, i.e. growing vegetables, herbs and/or spices.

Is there any age limit for the Urban Farming activity?

There is no age limit. However, we would encourage participants under the age of 7 years old to be accompanied by an adult.

*The accompanied adult would still need to pay for the participant fee.

What do I need to prepare in advance?

No preparation is required, materials and tools will be provided during the workshop. You may come in comfortable and casual wear.

Where will the workshop be held?

The workshop will be held at D'Resort.

What is the minimum and maximum number of participants?

The minimum number is 6 participants and maximum of 18 participants.
